

Over the Seas and Far Away

Convoys formed – brave men aboard,
Battened down to go abroad.
Sailing out from Barry port,
Leaving wives and all distraught.

CHORUS

O'er the seas and far away
The call of seas caused me to stray
So far from home and family
I only ask "Remember me!"

Britain needed us they said,
The seagulls' cries they onwards led.
Out there we earned each crust of bread,
Though now many are the honoured dead.

CHORUS

We strived with all our might and main,
To bring our cargoes home again.
Food and weaponry supplied,
Laid down our lives, so many died.

CHORUS

So here we lie in watery grave,
Not all returned – though many saved.
Remember us – remember well,
We are the ones who gave our all.
