

We will remember them. South Wales Echo 11th. November 2006

The following article caught my attention.

LEWIS
Raymond and Ken

In memory of Raymond and Ken, two Cardiff

LEWIS Raymond and Ken

In memory of Raymond and Ken, two Cardiff Docks Boys, who gave their lives at the ages of 14 and 15, whilst serving as Galley and Messroom Boys.

The brothers were lost when the SS Fiscus was torpedoed and went down with all hands on October 18th. 1940.

Two lads looking forward to a life which was lost before it began in the futility of war will not be forgotten by their school pals.

How lovely that after all these years they are still remembered.

*"They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them."*
